

A GREAT JOY-MAKER

“The spiritual act of giving is truly a great joy-maker in our lives. Through our estate plan, others will see that we’re followers of Jesus and that there is nothing more important to us than proclaiming the Word.”

– Steve and Julie

THE ULTIMATE GIFT

Giving to Teen Missions International in Your Will

ULTIMATE GIVING

Your will (or trust) is an important and powerful document. Through it, you care for the needs of your loved ones and ensure your resources are transferred in a God-honoring way.

Your completed will offers the ultimate statement to your family and the world about what matters most to you.

When you give to Teen Missions International through your will, you model to your loved ones a legacy of biblical stewardship and generosity. You also help Teen Missions International continue to inspire and equip a new generation to boldly proclaim salvation in Christ alone for generations to come.

HOW MUCH SHOULD I GIVE?

What's the right amount to leave to Teen Missions International and the other causes close to your heart? Many families consider one of three giving models.

Percentage or Tithes. Many individuals allocate a certain percentage of their estate toward Kingdom causes, such as 10 percent to reinforce tithing.

Child Named Charity. Some families add a “child named Charity” to their wills. For example, if a couple had four children, each of the children would receive 1/5 of their belongings, and the remaining 1/5 could go toward charity.

Gifts of Assets. People often designate real estate, business interests, life insurance, retirement assets, or other assets as gifts to charity. Often, it's because the property has special meaning, or their children have no further use for it, or because they wish to protect their families from unnecessary taxes.

WE'D LOVE TO “THANK YOU!”

We know you care deeply about our mission!

By letting Teen Missions International know about your planned ultimate gift, you can help us plan ahead to meet the ministry needs about which you care so much.

You also give us the opportunity to thank and honor you for the difference you will make, well beyond your lifetime.
