

Hello Prayer Partners,

The race to Boot Camp has officially started, and we simply can't wait! This summer, we'll be leading a team to Romania! Our team will be partnering with Youth for Christ, helping with children's camps and service projects. We're so excited to disciple this group of teens as they serve God this summer.

Joel has been pouring a lot of energy into preparing the tent sites for the teams. He's been working on building shelters in the tent areas that will be used during the summer program. He's also been building tent pads and clearing trees to help keep our teams safe.

I've been continuing my work with the marketing and media team. Recently, I've started rewriting the Bible study we use with the girls on mission trips. I'm excited to dive into the topics these young women face and help disciple them through it. Please pray for the Holy Spirit to guide me as I work on this project!

We just wrapped up our big fundraising event, the Tough Gator 5K Mud Run. It was a huge team effort to get the course and obstacles ready. We had around 630 runners on the property! The money raised will go to our mercy fund, which helps people around the world in times of crisis.

I've also been blessed to mentor one of our interns, Abigail, who is serving in Australia for a year.

I've been assigned to encourage and support her, and it's been awesome to see what God is doing in her life. It's such a blessing to speak life into her and watch God work in and through her!

Please pray with us:

- For our upcoming team: that God would move in and through us, for safe travels, and for fruitful ministry
- As we prepare for Boot Camp
- For revival in our spiritual lives as we get ready to lead this summer

Ministry Update

Teen Missions: A Legacy of Faith and Action

“I will remember the works of the Lord. Yes, I will remember the amazing things you did long ago!” Psalm 77:11

On May 7, 1970, Teen Missions was born—not from a boardroom or a business plan, but from a burning desire in the hearts of men and women who believed God could use young people to change the world. Leading the charge was Robert M. Bland, a man whose years in ministry had opened his eyes to a powerful truth: God doesn’t wait for someone to grow up before He calls them. And neither should we.

Bob met countless teenagers who were eager to serve the Lord, only to be told to wait. One young girl’s words stayed with him: “But I want to do something for the Lord now—not five years from now,” she told him. Her plea echoed the heart of a generation longing to act, to serve, and to go. Bob knew teens had the passion, the energy, and the boldness to follow wherever God would lead.

From that conviction, a bold and unprecedented vision took shape: “Training tomorrow’s missionary today.” The first Teen Missions team stepped out in faith and traveled to Mexico in 1971. It was the beginning of something extraordinary.

Fifty-five years later, the numbers tell the story—48,000+ teenagers, 120+ countries, and 1,900+ teams have left their mark across the globe. Fifty-five years later, our mission remains the same: “To inspire and equip a new generation to boldly proclaim salvation in Christ alone.” (1 Peter 2:9)

And that’s the story of Teen Missions—a story still being written by teenagers with willing hearts and a God who still does the impossible. When young hearts say “yes” to God, they can impact the world for Jesus!
