Madagascar

Hello, my name is Mampionona and I am in my first year of BMW.

I am testifying here for God's glory: Before I arrived here at Teen Missions, I did not have the zeal to pray and to read the Bible very often. Also, I wouldn't go to church on Sundays. When I came here, the time for devotions is the time when I can pray and talk to God and read His Word. This is a great privilege for me and I see myself growing spiritually. I'd rather talk to Him instead of doing other things. My knowledge has also grown through reading the Scriptures. In my past life, I never really forgave others; I just kept things in my heart. However, when I receive the teachings that we have daily in the evenings, I can't bring myself to argue with people anymore. I know that it brings opposition among us and that is sin. Moreover, the Word of God that I get through my daily devotions teaches me to quit my evil conduct both outwardly and inwardly. Most of all it rebukes me. I truly rejoice in the verses that God teaches me everyday. I wish that my family and friends will get to know the goodness of the Lord. Jesus has transformed me so I'd like that He will do the same for them. Thank you.

PARTNERS IN PRAYER

"Therefore encourage one another and build each other up, just as in fact you are doing."
